ECSE Pronoun Activity

April 2020

ECSE Pronouns
Lesson: April 2020

Learning Target:
Students will identify correct sentences containing "I" and "me" pronouns.

Background: This is a lesson to teach when to use "I" and "me" pronouns correctly

- Students will learn when to use either "I" or "me".
- Students will practice saying sentences containing each pronoun.
- Students will identify sentences as correct or incorrect.

Warm up:

1. Practice using "I" with this song!

2. Practice using "me" with this song!
    https://youtu.be/kt319a0GkCc

Go look in a mirror!
What's your name?
There are other words we use too!

Sometimes you don't use your name….

You can say "I"   Or you can say "me"

I   Me

Use "I" if you are doing or giving something!

Let's practice now!

- I am jumping!
- I am kicking a ball!
- I open my mouth!
- I give mom a kiss!
- I pet the dog (or cat)!

Use "me" if you are getting something or something is done to you!

Let's practice now!

- Dad gives me presents!
- Mom kisses me!
- Teachers help me!
- Dad gives me a high five!
- Mom hugs me!

Okay! Let's listen to some sentences.
Circle if they sound right or wrong!

Either circle your answer or give thumbs up or down!
