

Literacy Virtual Lesson

Early Education Syllables

April 13, 2020

Pre-K Literacy

Lesson: 04/13/2020

Learning Target:

Students will learn to count syllables in words.

Let's Get Started:

Watch Video: Clap, Stomp and Chomp by Jack Hartmann

Practice:
Can you count the syllables?

Chic-ken

Clap to the syllables.

Ball

Clap to the syllable.

Straw-ber-ry

Clap to the syllables.

Activity:

Clap With Me Scavenger Hunt!

Materials needed: Objects you find around the house.

1. Explain that your child's name has syllables.
2. Show an example clapping your hands as you say the syllables in their name.
3. Have your child clap to their name.
4. Find various objects around the house.
5. Clap the syllables of the object they find.

Watch Video: Breaking Words into Syllables