Emergent Writing

April 24, 2020

Pre-K Literacy

Lesson: 04/24/2020

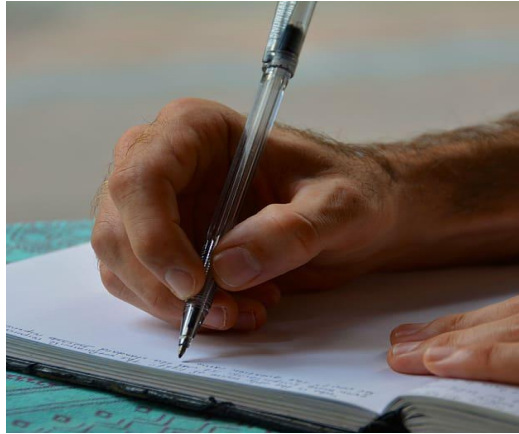

Learning Target:

Students will use letters or clearly recognizable approximations of letters to write own name.

Let's Get Started:

Watch Video: Teaching Kids to Write Their Name

Practice: Using a three point pincer grip

Show your child how to do a three point grip.
Show your child how to steady the paper with their other hand.

Activity:

Finding our Signature

Materials needed: Paper and writing tools of choice

1. Have your child draw pictures to mail to someone (Friend, family, etc...).
2. Encourage your child to write letters and words.
3. Tell your child to write their name when they finish.
4. Ask your child:
 - a. Tell me about your picture.
 - b. What letters are in your name?
