In this video, Patricia Polacco tells you the background behind her story Chicken Sunday.

1. BrainPOP: Plot
2. Take the quiz after watching the video.

Think about what new information you learned about writing your plot. What plot are you going to include in your story?

Practice: Today we are going to focus on problem and solution. Use this page in your packet to plan.

Story Structure

Title:

Character – Who is in your story?
(Monday)

Setting – Where were the characters at?
(Tuesday)

Problem – What went wrong in the story?
Solution – How did they fix the problem?
(Wednesday)

Ending – How did your story end? Make it a strong ending.
(Thursday)

Self Check:

Go tell someone in your home your answers.

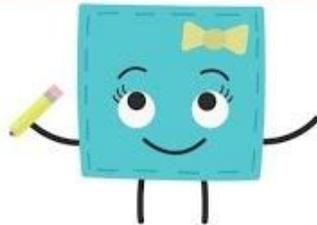

1. Was this lesson?

- easy,
- just right
- hard

2. What problem is in your story? How did your characters solve the problem?

Remember when you are writing, to think about capital letters, punctuation and spelling!
