What is a tricky word?

A tricky word is a word you come across while reading that you do not know. It's important to use other words in the sentence as clues to help you understand the meaning of the tricky word. This will be an important reading strategy to use as we learn more about fairytales.

Watch this video to see what happens to Josh when he didn't know the meaning of the word rupture.

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=6spWj7Ol3x0>

What did Josh's brother tell him to do if he doesn't know the meaning of the word? If he knew this strategy before his brother explained it, how would it have changed the story?

Practice 3

Directions: Read your own book for 20 minutes or more and record it in your reading log. Underneath the title, write any tricky words you came across while reading. Then, choose one of those words and create a window pane on a blank piece of paper. Look back on slide 7 as a reminder on what to include in your window pane.

Choice Board

Directions: After 20 minutes of reading your independent book each day, choose one of these activities to complete.

News Article

Write a newspaper article about 1 major event from your book. Be sure to include an exciting headline using bigger font.

Movie Poster

If your book was made into a movie, design a colorful poster to advertise it. Be sure to include the title, author, a summary, and a movie-critic's review!

Letter

Write a 1-page, friendly letter to someone recommending your book. Be sure to include a summary and 3 reasons why you liked it. (Be sure you use the friendly letter format.)

Character Bag

Collect 6 items that represent/symbolize a main character. These items should show your character's beliefs, activities, major events, likes, & dislikes. Be sure to explain each item.

Questions

Write 3 questions a character in the story would ask. Start: _____ would ask..

New Character

Create an original character and tell how that character would fit into the story.

Recommendation

Write a recommendation to your teacher as to why the story should be read or not

Magazine Interview

As a reporter, ask 10 questions of your main character. The 10 answers should show how well you know your character. (These should not be questions that are yes or no answers.)

Self Check:

Teach someone in your home the new words of the week.
