Visualizing Warm-Up:

Draw a picture of the animal you visualize as you read this poem.

MY NEIGHBOR'S DOG IS PURPLE

By Jack Prelutsky

My neighbor's dog is purple.
Its eyes are large and green.
Its tail is almost endless,
The longest I have seen.
My neighbor's dog is quiet.
It does not bark one bit.
But when my neighbor's dog is near,
I feel afraid of it!
My neighbor's dog looks nasty.
It has a wicked smile.
Before my neighbor painted it,

Visualizing Warm-Up:

Were you correct? Did you visualize a crocodile?

Rumpelstiltskin:

Listen to the Rumpelstiltskin reading while turning your technology around so that you can't see illustrations.

Think about what you already know about visualizing. What details help you?

Rumpelstiltskin:

Now that you have drawn a picture in your head of what you thought the illustrations looked like, turn your technology around and check to see if you visualized the same thing as the author or different.

Did you think similarly or different than the author?
