

ELA Virtual Learning

AP Literature & Composition

May 14, 2020

AP Literature & Composition

Lesson: Thursday, May 14, 2020

Objective/Learning Target:

Students will be able to analyze images, figurative language, tone, and thematic ideas in order to support their interpretations.

Success Starter

You will need a sheet of paper and a pen/pencil.

Answer the following questions on your paper:

- Why is creativity important?
- What responsibilities come along with creating something?
(for example, when you are finished creating something, what questions will you have to answer of others who view your project/creation)?
- When creating something, is it important to give credit to creators/inventors in the past who completed past work?

Continue your notes on your sheet of paper.

Watching this video about Mary Shelley's Frankenstein.

As you watch, write down 3 new pieces of information learned, and 2 questions you have for the creator/narrator of this video.

Practice & Assessment

Read this passage from Frankenstein. Once you are finished, answer the questions that follow. Check your answers afterward (answer key on the last page of the PDF).

Additional resources

Video about Romanticism

Crash Course video about Frankenstein/Gothic literature

AP English Literature: Deconstructing Prompts and Close Reading