

English I

Lesson: April 9th, 2020

Learning Target(s):

- Read and comprehend a text independently
- Identify point of view and analyze its impact on the text

Bell Ringer:

On a sheet of paper, write down the point of view that each sentence is written in. Your answer will be either 1st person, 2nd person, or 3rd person.

1. She's like the wind.
2. I am going to the store today.
3. You need to clean your room.
4. Caddy smelled like trees.
5. Your perfume smells good.

Learn:

- Step 1: Watch the linked YouTube video for a refresher on point of view.
 - Point of View Video
- Step 2: Read and annotate the short story “Recitatif” by Toni Morrison. I recommend printing the story out if you have the means to do so, so you can create your annotations on paper.
 - Recitatif

Practice:

- After reading the short story, please complete the attached worksheet. On the worksheet, you will respond to questions about the short story.
 - Recitatif Questions

Practice Answer Key:

- After completing the questions about “Recitatif,” please use the attached answer key to check your answers.
 - Recitatif Questions Answer Key