ELA Virtual Learning

English III: Point of View and Explicit and Implied Meanings in Text

Lesson: April 28, 2020

Learning Target(s):

- Students will understand perspective, through point of view, which leads to analysis

- Students will recognize when information is implied vs. explicit in a text

Bell Ringer!

Record and Analyze the following African proverb:

Until the lions produce their own historian, the story of the hunt will glorify only the hunter.

What do you think this means? How would the lion's point of view differ from the hunter?

Who is right?

Who could the "lion" and "hunter" be in history?

Learn:

There are different types of Point-of-View (POV) that you have been exposed to throughout your education. But it is important to understand how POV can alter the meaning of a text. Review the following to get a better understanding of how this works:

- Read this short article that breaks down POV by using a theater analogy.

- Watch this short video that explains how a narrator's point of view can alter what happens within the text.

- Take a look at this video which helps to explain the difference between EXPLICIT and IMPLIED information within a text.

Practice:

- Practice identifying the difference between explicit and implied information by taking this short, interactive online quiz.

- After reading this article complete this exercise that helps you to practice identifying explicit vs. implied information.

- Let's look at how an author's POV can alter the information in the text. Point of View/Perspective Writing

Practice Answer Key:

- Online Quiz over Explicit vs. Implied Information: Answer Key
- For the exercise based off of the article assigned, answers will vary based on the reader's interpretation and passages chosen from the article.
- Author POV/Perspective Sample Answer

If you want to learn more…Additional Resource:

Watch this video that goes into more depth in explaining Point of View in Literature.