6-8/Essential Literacy

Lesson: April 24, 2020

Objective/Learning Target:

- I can I can tell a story in order from beginning to end
- I can use signal/transition words in a story by using a plot diagram.

Daily Warm-Up

On your “Daily Warm-Up” notebook paper from this week, skip a line and then write today’s date.

Last week you learned about sequential order. Today, using sequencing words I want you to write a paragraph telling about a time you learned to do something (ex: ride a bike, skate, play a game). Make sure to use signal words to transition between steps.

Today's Lesson - Sequencing

Informational Text Structures

Order and Sequence:

To show events or procedures in time order

"A starfish starts as an egg and then becomes a larva."

Signal words: first, second, third, next, later, then, before, followed by, finally...

When we sequence, we tell a story from beginning to end using signal words or connecting words.

Today's Assignment Sequencing Scavenger Hunt

To practice sequencing, write a paragraph (minimum of 4 sentences) on "How to wash your hands." Each sentence MUST contain a signal or transition word.

How to Wash Your Hands

Practice Answer Checklist

- Does your paragraph have FOUR sentences?
- Does each sentence start with a capital letter?
- Does it have punctuation at the end?
- Did you use sequencing words (first, next then, last, finally) to transition steps?
- Did you follow the steps in the pictures?

Sample Example

First, apply soap to your fingers & hands. Next, run your hands through water to wet the soap. Then, scrub your hands, fingers, and back of hands vigorously to kill germs. Last, rinse your hands off and dry.
