Public Safety

Lesson: April 24, 2020

Objective/Learning Target:

Policing in the News

Use of Force in the News.

Warm Up: As we've seen in this block, the relationship is an extremely important aspect of community/police resolution in tough times of conflict. Transparency through open communication can go a long way in preventive measures of conflict resolution.

What are ways the police can do a better job of building relationships with their communities?

As an officer, how would you work to undo historical disconnect with your neighborhoods?

How are our local doing at doing this?

- ❖ Crossing the bridge on the gap between the citizens and the police.
- ❖ Relating to people where they are..
- ❖ The department should reflect the community it represents.
- ❖ Recruit quality officers from the community.

Check out the following stories for more examples of Use of Force scenarios for the public to get a glimpse of Law Enforcement decisions.
