

Advanced Photography / Kathryn Messick / April 6, 2020

Lesson Name: STREET PHOTOGRAPHY Monday 4/6/2020

Objective: To gain appreciation of a street photographer in the real world, and decide if this is a type of photography you might enjoy/apply in your life.

Requirements: Camera or Cellphone

Bell Ringer: Read the following article:

<https://photographylife.com/an-interview-with-street-photographer-valerie-jardin>

Examples & Supporting Materials:

Task 1: Answer the following questions after reflecting over the Bell Ringer article:

1. Would you enjoy being a street photographer?
2. Do you appreciate black and white photos?
3. Do you think you could do street photography where you live?
 - a. What challenges would there be?
 - b. Would it be more of a neighborhood rather than a street?

Task 2: Research online, or whatever resources you have access to, more street photography or neighborhood photography. Possible famous photographer to follow on social media:

Steve McCurry <https://www.stevemccurry.com/bio> Steve McCurry Mexico 2020

Task 3: Look through your cellphone camera album, do you have any photos that would be street photography or neighborhood photography?

