

The Triple Threat: CHOREOGRAPHY

Brought to you by: Ms. Hayes, Mr. Meyer, & Ms. Yung

Learning Goals:

At the end of the week, you will:

Explore triple threats in musical theatre.

Identify basic dance steps used in musical theatre.

Explore the role of dance in developing as an actor.

Practice and conquer! a basic choreography routine.

DAY THREE

Day THREE: Take a few minutes to contemplate the following: Do you think James Corden is a triple threat?

Can he:

Sing?

Dance?

Act?

Bonus: How many musical references from the video can you list?

Just sayin':

This could be you too! Dream BIG!!!!

How much dance terminology do you know?

Activity:

Research the following terms, so you can:

1. Define them
2. Dance them

Terms:

- 3-Step Turn
- Grapevine
- Box Step
- Kick Ball Change

How to access the choreography steps:

1. Go to <https://www.daily8count.com/>This is a FREE RESOURCE right now.
2. On the left hand side, click enter site.
3. Click on Weekly Combination
4. Complete the information for this week's password (email and first name)
5. You will then be given a password on that page, that is used to access the video.
6. Scroll down and you will see the video. Use the password to unlock.

Practice your steps:

1. Put on some clothes you can move in!
 2. Review Day One & Two Steps, do you remember all your moves?
 3. Access Day THREE Daily 8 Count
 4. Watch, follow, and practice until you can complete the steps without watching!
 5. Have fun, sell it!!!!
-

Reflection:

1. How did today's 8 count rehearsal go? Are you seeing improvements? Can you define your dance moves with proper terminology?