

Comm Skills Virtual Learning

Legal Communications I & II

Research & Investigation

May 8 2020

Lesson: May 8, 2020

Objective/Learning Target: Students will research and investigate gaps in laws and policy.

Bell Ringer/Let's Get Started

While completing this project what are some of the rights and responsibilities that of citizenship that you have explored?

Lesson/Activity

Presentation

Let's run through it one last time and see how we feel!

What do you plan to do with your reform initiative? How will you share your message?

Lesson/Activity

Let's Reflect

1. What have you learned about how your community and public policies are organized and enacted?
2. What responsibilities of public officials or members of the community did you find most influential as you did this project? Why?
3. What conflicts or challenges did you encounter while doing this project? How did you resolve them?

4. Which parts of the project did you enjoy most and why?

5. Explain how the following attitudes and character traits are important for members of a community in a democracy – and how/if any of these were involved in this project?

Individual responsibility Self discipline Civility Courage:

Respect for the rights of others: Respect for law: Honesty: Open-mindedness:

Critical thinking: Negotiation and Compromise: Persistence:

Civic-mindedness: Compassion:

Lesson/Activity

Now that the project is complete, what do you feel more confident about for future projects you work on?

Practice

My Project Evaluation

Explain in detail what you did for this project in each of the following categories. On a scale of 1 - 10, what rating would you give yourself? Why? (10 is the best.)

RESEARCH

WRITING/DOCUMENTATION

INTERVIEWS/SURVEY/DATA COLLECTION

PRESENTATION

Additional Resources

EPA Town Hall Meeting

School Board Meetings

Tips for Making Business Presentations