End of the Year Reflections

Apply lessons from the year to pass on to future interpers

Bell Ringer/Let's Get Started

What are some memorable things you've learned this year in drama? What are ideas that stick with you that you have come to agree with or disagree with?

Lesson/Activity

1. Sometimes coaches and teammates say things in class and at tournaments that stick with you and help you learn how to act and represent your team and events.
2. These include, but are not limited to, “the walls have eyes and ears!” or “the grace period does not exist!”
3. List things you’ve heard your coach, teammates, or opponents say throughout the year that stick with you in competition and drama that should be passed onto future interpers.

Practice

Make a “drama” meme that can resonate with future interpers. My favorite example from this year:
