Use Context Clues

All these strikes stood against me ever getting to work on that bridge. But the biggest obstacle of all, the thing that made Mama Lil the most stubborn, was my dream of becoming an engineer.

The word obstacle means: _____

How do you know? _____

The word stubborn means: _____

How do you know? _____

After reading the paragraph, use context clues to figure out the meaning of each vocabulary word. Then, plug each vocabulary word correctly in the second paragraph.

Everyone in a way wants to have a career one day. Become a doctor, an attorney, or a coach. Me, I wanted to become a comedian. I wanted to make people laugh. I enjoy making people laugh. As a kid, my mom needed to give her consent to the comedy club in order for me to practice comedy with other adults. When she allowed me to work on my passion, I didn't know how to react. Thanks to my mom, I am a successful comedian today.

Use: Career, Comedian, Consent, React to fill in the blank

I _____ a little too much at times when someone tells me a joke. It is not my fault, as a kid I always dream of becoming a _____. So when someone tells me a funny joke, I give them my _____ in case I die of laughter. Just kidding! But in reality I am so lucky. Being a _____ is my _____. Nothing is better than making money doing what you love.
