Let's talk about #5

Make the Most of Your Resources

- As an online virtual learning student, you have many helpful resources available.
- Naturally, your computer and cell phones to look go to your classroom websites, look up info and contact teachers.
- But don't forget the many human resources you can use: parents, siblings, teachers, school counselors, and principals are great sources of information.

Good rule of thumb

If you've been looking for an answer for more than five minutes, reach out for help!

Field Trip to the Nelson Atkins Museum of Art

Queen Nefertari: Eternal Egypt

Before taking this tour, answer these questions:

1. Have you ever heard of Queen Nefetari of Egypt?
2. Do you know where to find Egypt on a map? What continent is Egypt in?

Now watch the video and write 5 things you learned from this video and email them to your teacher. We want to hear from you!

We hope you enjoyed this field trip and hope you go visit this museum in Kansas City. It is free to the public.

A Weekly Check In! If you have not done so, I would like you to take this weekly survey letting us know how you are doing.

Things to Remember from Last Week

- Contact your teachers, tell them hello. We miss you!
- There is still time to improve your grades for 2nd semester.
- You can still get a Chromebook at Truman High School. Go to the school from 11:00a.m. to 1:00p.m. Your parent needs to go to sign a waiver.
- Go to this link that was shared in an email by Dr. Herl to get free WiFi. <https://corporate.comcast.com/covid-19>
- Here is a Spanish video on how you can use your cell phone as a HOT SPOT. Please share this with all the other ESL students.

Feel Good Friday

"It's a funny thing about life, once you begin to take note of the things you are grateful for, you begin to lose sight of the things that you lack."
~German Kent

Happy News

Open this link and read some stories on what people are doing to being happy/positive and how they make others happy and positive.

This ends another week. I hope it was a great week for you. Don't forget teachers are available to help you. You need to email us. Have a great weekend and see you on Monday.
