Activity:

Today you'll finish writing an article that could be in a Fashion Magazine. It should be based on research that you've done on blogs and what is trending. It is your own opinion. Include things like a description of the trending item, who designed it, who's wearing it and why it's a must-have for this season!

You may also include pictures and format the font for interest and appeal. Remember it is in a Fashion Magazine!

You may design it on your daily Google Doc
