Why might it be important to learn how to hand draw a room, rather than just using a computer program to do it?

1. Use the following piece of graph paper or if you don't have the option to print the paper out then use a piece of paper and draw the current layout of your kitchen.
2. Looking at the sheet you filled out looking at improvements you would like to make with your kitchen make another drawing showing the new layout.

Reminder:

If you want feedback of your work make sure it is properly labeled and then put into Google Classroom
