

HS-Professions in Education

Lesson: #4-April 9th

Learning Target: Students will develop a lesson plan for a diverse learner in class.

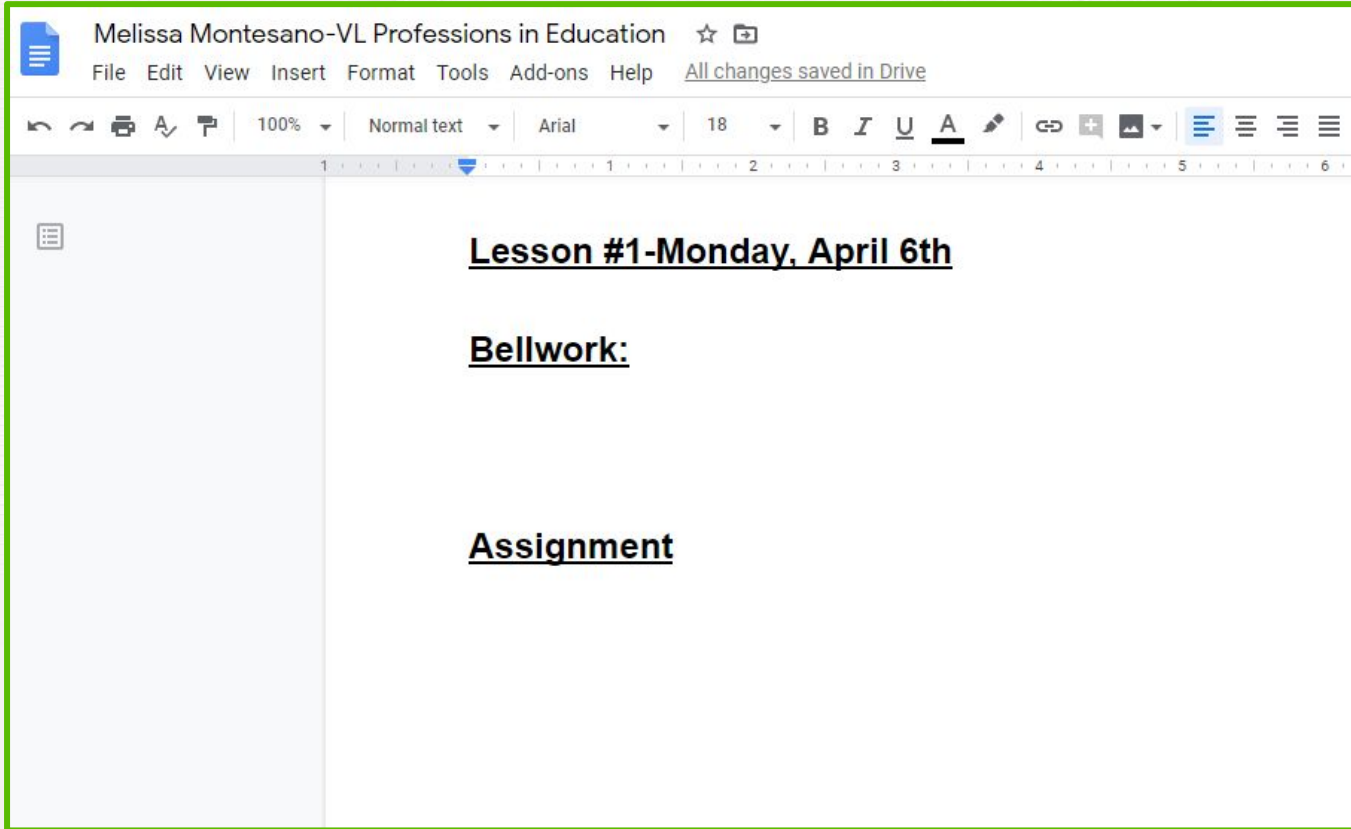

How to do bellwork and assignments:

- Create a google doc for Professions in Education
- Title it with your full name and the name of the class with a VL in front for Virtual Learning
- Each day, put that day's date and lesson on a new page of the same doc
- Under the date, have two sections:
 - Bellwork
 - Assignment

An example is on the next slide.

Example Google Doc

The screenshot shows a Google Docs interface. At the top, the document title is "Melissa Montesano-VL Professions in Education" with a star icon and a share icon. Below the title is a menu bar with "File", "Edit", "View", "Insert", "Format", "Tools", "Add-ons", and "Help". A status bar indicates "All changes saved in Drive". The toolbar includes icons for undo, redo, print, text color, background color, zoom (100%), text style (Normal text), font family (Arial), font size (18), bold (B), italic (I), underline (U), text color (A), eraser, link, insert, and view options. The document content consists of three lines of text, all underlined and bolded: "Lesson #1-Monday, April 6th", "Bellwork:", and "Assignment". A ruler is visible at the top of the document area, showing a scale from 1 to 6 inches. On the right side of the document, there is a vertical stack of colorful pencils.

Lesson #1-Monday, April 6th

Bellwork:

Assignment

Instructions

Unit: Teaching Diverse Learners

Bellwork/Warm Up:

Describe a lesson in which you were truly engaged in school.
What made it appealing or fun?

Objective: Standard: 4.3.2

Activity: Be the Teacher

Teaching Diverse Students

Activity:

1. Choose a topic/subject/skill that you would want to learn as a student. Research it first and learn more about it.
2. Choose one type of diverse learner we've discussed in this unit.
3. Then create a lesson plan, activity or project that demonstrates how you would teach it if you were the instructor, specifically to help that type of learner. Be sure and decide what grade level/age group you'd be teaching.
