Note Taking Activity

Speech Pathologists treat patients who have injuries, illnesses, or disabilities through the therapeutic use of everyday activities.

To begin, let's take a blank sheet of paper and something to write with. We will watch a short video over this career. As you watch the video, jot down a 1-2 sentence summary of the Speech Pathologist career,

Reading / Research Activity

Take a look at this web page published by the US Bureau of Labor and Statistics.

Look over the web page. It contains summaries of different topics covered elsewhere on the site. But for now, looking at the entry page, identify ONE fact or concept introduced on the page that surprises or concerns you- or that gives you a specific opinion of this career field.

There are no right or wrong answers to this activity. Students should choose and discuss one fact from the video., just your opinion.

Lets move to the next topic:

Take a look a the What Speech Pathologists Do page.

On your paper, make a T-chart. Label the left side “what I like” and label the right half “what I don’t like”

Look over the What Speech Pathologists Do page and list 3-4 pieces of information that stand out from the page. List them on the appropriate side of the T-chart on your paper.

There are no right or wrong answers to this activity, just your opinion.

Lets move to the next topic:

Take a look a the Work Environment page.

When you examine the various work environments, select 2-3 and write them in the appropriate column of your chart. Again, there are no right or wrong answers- this is an exploratory exercise!

Lets move to the next topic:

Take a look a the How to Become One page.

Most Speech Pathologists enter the occupation with a master's degree and a license. This requires a 4 year degree and several years of graduate school. Write the term MAster's Degree in the appropriate column on your T-chart.

Lets move to the next topic:

Take a look a the Pay page.

On this page, take a look at the average salaries for Speech Pathologists.

You may note that there is a range of salaries- which is determined by what kind of industry you work in. On your chart, be honest with yourself and write “pay” on the appropriate column on your t-chart.

Closing Activity

Look over the T-chart and review what you have written. Is this still the a career choice you are interested in? If not, consider these similar careers.
