

Leadership

Alexander Book

April 21, 2020

Lesson: April 21, 2020

Objective: Students will be able to infer a leadership lesson from a children's book and relate it to their life.

Learning Target: 13.5.1

How to do assignments:

If you created a google doc last week, continue on it. If you did not, then:

- Create a google doc.
- Put today's date and the lesson topic
- Put the questions and answers under that date. (You may need to copy the questions from the lesson and paste them into your doc)

Today, you will be listening to children's book and pulling a leadership lesson out of it.

Go to the link below and listen to the story.

Alexander and the Terrible, Horrible, No Good, Very Bad Day

Answer the questions on the next slide in your google doc.

1. Summarize this book.
  2. How does this relate to leadership?
  3. List 3 things in your life recently that have been terrible, horrible, no good or very bad. Then next to it, explain how it could have been worse.
  4. What do you think “resilient mindset” means?
  5. As a leader, how can you use the moral of this story in your life.
  6. Do you agree or disagree and why?
- Sometimes, helping others during their bad day can make your bad day better.
