

Foundations of Woods

Project Book 1-Chapter 7:
Paper towel holder, step stool, and tote box quiz

May 22, 2020

9-12/ Foundations of Woods
Project Book 1-Chapter 7 Quiz: [May 22, 2020]

Objective/Learning Target:

Students will be taking a quiz over chapter 7 to review the material they learned on 5/21/2020.

Creating a cut list helps the carpenter to make certain there are enough materials to complete the project and that all parts for the project have been cut.

-True

-False

True

The _____ is an inventory of each part of the project and the part's dimensions.

-Inventory list

-Cut list

-Materials list

Most prints for Project Book 1 contain four views:
Top View, Isometric View, Side View, and

-----.

- Bottom view
- Slant view
- Right side view
- End view

End view

When using the saber saw, make smooth cuts that are free of _____ spots.

-Flat

-Smooth

-Rough

-Bumpy

Flat

In the footstool procedure, Laying Out and Cutting the Arcs on the Sides, a _____ is used to layout the arcs.

- Half circle

- Tape measure

- Compass

Compass

Short Answer:

In the procedure for cutting the end pieces of the tote box, why is the hole for the handle drilled before the box is assembled?

Short Answer:

After cutting the radius on the end pieces of the paper towel holder, what tools can be used to smooth the edges and why would these tools be used?

Short Answer:

When making cuts with the saber saw, why is it important to clamp down the material?