Kindergarten ELA Phonics

Lesson: April 6, 2020

Learning Target:

Students will be able to blend sounds to read words.

Background:

- Students practice prior sound knowledge.
- Students build on segmenting and blending skills.
- Students practice writing sentences independently.

Let's Get Started:

Watch Video:

1. Daily sound review

Practice #1, 2, & 3:

On the next page is a video of Jolly Phonics;

1. Sound out words and blend words.
2. Listen to a word, s t r e t c h it out and write all the sounds you hear.
3. Using some of the words you wrote you will write a sentence to go with the picture.

Feel free to pause the video whenever you need to work.

Video:

You will need:

Practice on your own: Read what you wrote!

Practice reading the sentence you wrote.
Make any changes you need to so that it is perfect!

Check that you have:

- A capital at the beginning
- Spaces between your words
- Punctuation at the end

Self Check:

Once you have read it to yourself, read it to someone you live with!

You could read it to:
a parent,
a sibling,
your pet,
or a stuffed animal!
