LS/CBSS/FS Basic Reading Lesson Plans

Lesson: May 1, 2020

Learning Target:

Students will increase basic reading skills to read a text that is instructionally appropriate (at his/her reading level)

Background: This is a review lesson in Basic Reading Skills- Fluency and Sight Word REVIEW

- Students will increase phonemic awareness by reading high frequency words (reviewing the words AND, THE, YOU, IT, IN & TO).
- Students will increase phonemic awareness by demonstrating decoding skills when reading.
- Students will increase the ability to read appropriate texts with fluency (rate, accuracy, expression, appropriate phrasing).

Let's Get Started:

1. Review the word wall (This activity could also be completed in a Notebook)
2. Listen to the Sight Word Rap, and see if you can spell the words with the song- Sight Word Rap 1 | Sight Words | High Frequency Words | Jump Out Words | Jack Hartmann
3. Sensory Activity: Writing with Whipped Cream

Review the word wall

Review the words on your word wall: Have your student point to the word 'TO' and then also reviewing the words 'IN', 'IT', 'YOU', 'THE' and 'AND'. (you can also do this in a Notebook or by viewing this slide).

Sensory Words

Directions: Get a flat baking sheet and take a soft, thick substance such as Whipped Cream, Shaving Cream, Pudding, Sand, Mayonnaise, etc... and spread it on the sheet in a thick layer. Students can then write and “erase” the sight words in the cream as you dictate the word to them. Check for correct spelling and then smooth the substance to create the next word. Our review words: and, the, you, it, in, to

Practice #1

Directions- Review the Sight words AND, THE, YOU, IT, IN and TO. Say them and then review what they mean.

You can use the 3 x 5 cards with the words written on them to match to the word definitions on the following slides. (You could also write these definitions on separate cards and have the student do this as a matching game).
