Art Explorations

LESSON: April 23, 2020

Objective/Learning Target: We will be drawing our southwest patterns.

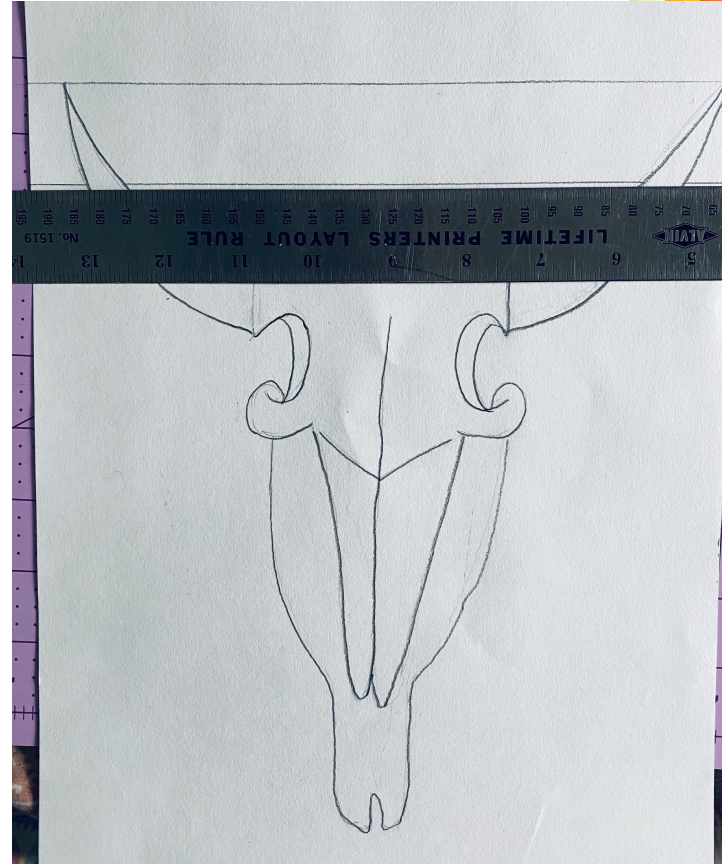

Reminder of what we will be making.

Here is what you'll need for today:

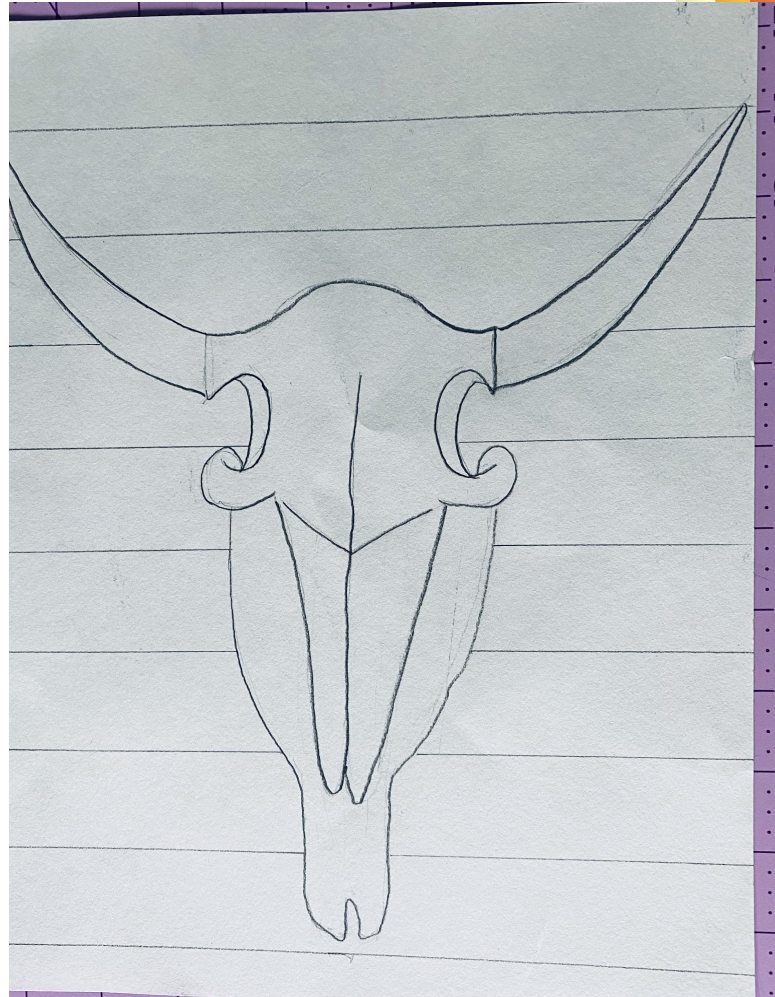

- Your paper with a cow skull drawn on it
- Pencil
- Eraser
- Ruler or something with a straight edge

On your paper make horizontal lines. Make sure to skip those areas where the skull is drawn. I made mine by using the width of the ruler. I continued to make a line and move the ruler down to make another. I lined the top of the ruler with the line I just drew.

Should look something like this. You will then choose a design for each section that you drew. You can repeat patterns if you'd like.

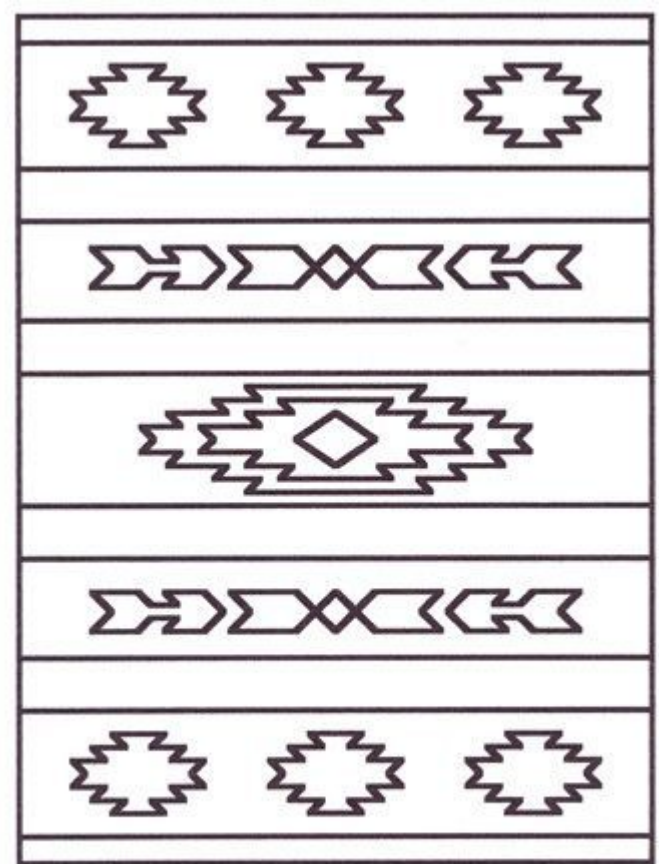

Southwest Designs

- Yesterday we looked at different designs from the southwest region. You can copy those that are on this slide and the next or create your own.

Here are my designs.

Once you are done with your designs, go over your pencil marks with a Sharpie, black marker, or you can go over them again with a pencil. You can make the lines darker by pressing harder on the paper.

Tomorrow we work on coloring our drawings.
