Review

So far you should have:

Folded your paper into 6 sections

Labeled your sections with title, star, directors, producers, cast, acts

Written and described your directors

Written and described your producers

Written your title, star and front picture

Background

Today you will be working on your cast.

A cast is the group of actors who make up a film or stage play.

And the act of being chosen for the part? Well, they were cast by the director. That's showbiz for you.

Additional Information

Watch the following video to learn about what a casting director does.

Activity

--	--	--

If you were to cast the people in your play who would you choose?

You cannot choose someone else you have already listed in your Directors or Producers

These people could include:

Siblings

Friends

Pets

Grandparents/Aunts/Uncles

Activity Continued

Go to the section of your playbill you marked cast.

Label the top Cast.

Pick 5 or more people and write their first and last name.

Then write 3 sentences to describe them. It could include their personality, job, hobbies, ect.

Each person is unique so make sure you are putting different qualities and descriptions for each person.

Example

Cast

Jana Sloan Jana is a stay at home mom and loves to make crafts. She is very outgoing and likes to have parties at her house. She likes to read and has a dog named Cooper.

Susie Arnold Susie is someone who has a lot of energy and loves to play games. She is very adventurous and loves to travel. She is an insurance agent and lives less than a mile from me.

Self Assessment

Did you put at least 5 new people?

Did you describe each person in a different way?

Did you write at least 3 sentences for each person?

Did you use the whole space? If not go in and add a picture that represents your friends in the empty space.

Do you have 2 columns left empty? You should.
