Questions to ponder... ANSWERED

With only using the total rank, could we break 6 competitors into finals? YES! There are only 6 competitors.

If this was a 2 round tournament, could we use the total ranks to find 1st-6th place? No, we have to go to tie breaking measures.

Assuming a competitor receives 1st place, Rd. 1 and 1st place Rd. 2 their total score would be a $\underline{2}$.

Meaning, the lowest and best score possible for preliminary rounds is a total rank of a 2.

Starting with the lowest score, you will now break the top 8 competitors into finals.
