Background

You've been hard at work on your Original Oratory, but it's time to take a break for a Fun Friday!

Grab your family or call a friend, today's lesson will require you to collaborate.

If you'd rather use today to catch up on this week's assignments, that's alright too.

Warm Up: Tongue Twisters

Who can handle these tongue twisters?

- Unique New York. Unique New York.
- Can you can a can as a canner can can a can?

Activity Directions: One Word Story

One Word Story requires you and at least one other person to act as a single storyteller. Your goal is to tell a clear story with a beginning, middle, and end one word at a time. This is a great game to help with focus and teamwork.

- Pick one of the story titles from the next slide to shape your story
- While facing each other or seated in a circle, the first player says a single word to begin the story.
- The person on the left of Player One says the next word
- This should continue around the circle until your story has reached a good ending

Story Titles for One Word Story

Use one of the following titles to help guide your story telling:

- The Apple Tree
- My First Cake
- The Surprise Party
- Monday Mornings
- The Last Roll
- My First Guest

Try as many of these titles as you want, or come up with some of your own!
