

NES Virtual Learning

6-8 Reading/Writing Shark Attacks

April 8, 2020

Lesson: April 8, 2020

Objective/Learning Target: Student will read a text and answer questions about it.
Student will identify root words.

Let's Get Started:

Watch this video:

ROOT WORDS

Shark attacks are scary. Most sharks eat meat. They like large fish or seals. They do not hunt humans, but attacks do happen. Attacks are very rare. Sharks may bite a person swimming in the ocean. They may think they are eating a seal.

Question 1

What is this story mostly about?

- a. Seals
- b. Shark attacks
- c. The ocean
- d. Shark food

Shark attacks are scary. Most sharks eat meat. They like large fish or seals. They do not hunt humans, but attacks do happen. Attacks are very rare. Sharks may bite a person swimming in the ocean. They may think they are eating a seal.

Question 1

What is this story mostly about?

- a. Seals
- ☒ b. Shark attacks
- c. The ocean
- d. Shark food

Shark attacks are scary. Most sharks eat meat. They like large fish or seals. They do not hunt humans, but attacks do happen. Attacks are very rare. Sharks may bite a person swimming in the ocean. They may think they are eating a seal.

Question 2

What does this text not say about shark attacks on humans?

- a. Sharks sometimes mistake humans for food.
- b. They are scary.
- c. They happen in warm water.
- d. They are rare.

Shark attacks are scary. Most sharks eat meat. They like large fish or seals. They do not hunt humans, but attacks do happen. Attacks are very rare. Sharks may bite a person swimming in the ocean. They may think they are eating a seal.

Question 2

What does this text not say about shark attacks on humans?

- a. Sharks sometimes mistake humans for food.
- b. They are scary.
- ☒ c. They happen in warm water.
- d. They are rare.

Shark attacks are scary. Most sharks eat meat. They like large fish or seals. They do not hunt humans, but attacks do happen. Attacks are very rare. Sharks may bite a person swimming in the ocean. They may think they are eating a seal.

Question 3

Which word has the same root word as eating?

- a. Each
- b. Eaten
- c. At
- d. Tingly

Shark attacks are scary. Most sharks eat meat. They like large fish or seals. They do not hunt humans, but attacks do happen. Attacks are very rare. Sharks may bite a person swimming in the ocean. They may think they are eating a seal.

Question 3

Which word has the same root word as eating?

- a. Each
- ☒ b. Eaten
- c. At
- d. Tingly

Shark attacks are scary. Most sharks eat meat. They like large fish or seals. They do not hunt humans, but attacks do happen. Attacks are very rare. Sharks may bite a person swimming in the ocean. They may think they are eating a seal.

Question 4

Which words from the text have similar meanings?

- a. Rare and scary
- b. Like and bite
- c. Attack and hunt
- d. Think and like

Shark attacks are scary. Most sharks eat meat. They like large fish or seals. They do not hunt humans, but attacks do happen. Attacks are very rare. Sharks may bite a person swimming in the ocean. They may think they are eating a seal.

Question 4

Which words from the text have similar meanings?

- a. Rare and scary
- b. Like and bite
- ☒ c. Attack and hunt
- d. Think and like

Additional Practice:

Click on the link below to learn more about root words.

ROOT WORDS