

Social Studies Virtual Learning

6-8 EL Beginning Social Studies

April 17, 2020

Lesson: April 17, 2020

Objective/Learning Target: The student will write a paragraph about an important feature of the Northeast Region

Let's Get Started: Read about the Northeast you can listen to it by clicking the video link

The Northeast Video

The Northeast is an important region, There are eleven states in the Northeast. The District of Columbia is in the Northeast, too.

Many finance businesses are located in the Northeast. People in finances work with money. Some people work in banks. Other people work in the stock market. They buy and sell stocks and bonds.

The communication industry is also in the Northeast. People in this industry share information with other people. Newscasters report the news in television studios. Writers report the news in newspapers and magazines. Newspaper headlines and advertisements give more information. Radios, telephones, and satellites are important, too. They carry information around the world.

There are famous landmarks in the Northeast, too. The Statue of Liberty is in New York City. The Liberty Bell is in Philadelphia. The White House is in the District of Columbia. These are important landmarks.

Look at the picture

What are some things you see in the picture?

Use the picture and the reading to complete the paragraph. Add 2-3 of your own sentences.

News in the Northeast

It is time for the news. People who report the news work in a _____. A person operates the camera. A _____ reads the news.

Use the picture and the reading to complete the paragraph. Add 2-3 of your own sentences.

News in the Northeast

It is time for the news. People who report the news work in a television studio. A person operates the camera. A newscaster reads the news. They sit at a desk. They tell about the weather. They use maps.

Watch the news tonight in English.

Talk to someone in your family about things you see on the news that were like things you saw in the picture you wrote about.