

ELL Virtual Learning

Grade 6,7,8/Developing Becoming a Better Reader

April 10, 2020

Lesson: April 10, 2020

Objective/Learning Target:

The student will read a text and write a thank you letter.

Read "Sending Thanks"

March 10, 2012

Dear Grandma,

I wanted to write you a note to say thank you for my present. It came in the mail yesterday, the day before my birthday. I love the books! How did you know that I was reading the series on ancient Egypt? Did my dad tell you that I am interested in that topic?

I also loved the soccer clothes. My spring season starts in a few weeks, and I can wear these clothes for my weekly soccer practice. I really hope I score a few goals this season. I'm going to work really hard to try to make that happen.

When will you be able to visit me here? I miss you so much and hope we can see each other soon. I know the plane ride can be a long one, but I really hope that I see you.

Did my mom tell you that I am almost done with third grade? I have only six more weeks until summer vacation, and I can't wait for the break. We are going camping at the river. I am so excited to jump into the water with the rope swing. That is the best!

I love you, Grandma. Thanks again for my birthday presents.

Sincerely,

Greta

Think about a gift someone has given you. Using the reading as an example, write a thank you letter for that gift. Be sure to include why you liked the gift.

Read your letter to someone.

Ask them what gifts they have been given that they liked.