Reading: A cloze story

DIRECTIONS:

You will be reading a story that you have never read before, although it might be similar to a story that you are familiar with. Some words are missing from the story, and you will need to figure out what they are!

As you read, look at the words from the word bank. Consider which of the words from the word bank would best fit in each space! Drag the appropriate missing word from the word bank onto each blank space in order to complete the story so that it makes sense.
