

Band Virtual Learning

6th Grade Woodwinds

May 19, 2020

6th Grade Woodwinds Lesson: May 19, 2020

Objective/Learning Target: Students will:

- Explore different areas of a performing ensemble and listen/watch them perform from different perspectives
- Explore Cincinnati Music Hall while listen to selected music

Introduction

This week we will be doing some exploring. Take time to move through a full orchestra, obtaining a different experience from each space.

Travel through the Cincinnati Music Hall while listening to different selections of music. Make sure you check out the many options of exploring this fascinating Hall.

London Symphony Orchestra

On this first site, you can choose different pieces to listen to, then view the performance from different sections of the ensemble. Listen for the different parts of music we have discussed over the past weeks.

What are you hearing? Tempo... Dynamics... Balance... etc.

London Symphony Orchestra

Go to the London Symphony Orchestra's website.
There is an amazing amount of information on here.
But.... For our purposes, go to LSO Play.

There are numerous pieces to choose from.
Pick a few and enjoy!

London Symphony Orchestra

Which musical selections did you like the best?

From what perspective did you find it most interesting to watch? Why?

Cincinnati Music Hall

In our current situation, many have become more aware of different avenues to virtually explore our world.

Cincinnati Music Hall has a virtual tour that visitors could spend hours in. While on this tour, listen to the different selections of music. Do you hear anything you recognize? Click on the circles to take you to different parts of the building while listening.

Cincinnati Music Hall

What was your favorite part of exploring the Hall?

Did you recognize any of the pieces you listened to?