5. Will these be awarded by lot or by line?
The bid will be awarded as one bid. It is all or none.
6. On the Walkin cooler spec do you have a drawing? These are usually combination boxes with one section being a cooler and the other being a freezer with a dividing wall in between. However it could be two entirely separate boxes too.

Other than the drawing provided by the architect (PDF) which was attached in Addendum 1 & 2. We don't have specifics on whether they are two separate units or one separated by a wall.
You can use AmeriKooler or Thermalite. If you use AmeriKooler, please bid the model numbers listed. If you bid a Thermalite, please get as close to those dimensions provided, knowing that there is a floor in the freezer called out and the cooler doesn't have to have a floor, but can if needed.
