Do you express your creativity through dance, music, or poetry? Do you like to draw pictures that make others smile or express your feelings through art? Do you enjoy taking pictures or videotaping for fun? We want you to participate in Reflections...a program designed to give children an outlet for their creativity! Begin thinking about the theme listed above and get out a paintbrush, pencil, camera or instrument and start creating!

Entries will be displayed at Sycamore Hills. Entries will be judged and participants will receive a certificate. Entries will be sent to State for further judging. Good Luck, Sycamore Hills!
