

APPLICATION REQUIREMENTS FOR SCHOLARSHIP

CHURCH WOMEN UNITED

INDEPENDENCE UNIT

The Independence unit of Church Woman United will be awarding a college scholarship in the amount of $500.00 to a graduating senior of a school located in Independence MO.

An application must be filled out and certain requirements met.

The student must answer ALL the questions on the application. IF ANY ARE LEFT BLANK THIS WILL DISQUALIFY THE STUDENT FROM BEING CONSIDERED FOR THE SCHOLARSHIP. NOT APPLICABLE OR N/A WILL NOT BE ACCEPTED AS AN ANSWER.

Along with the application, the student must have letters of recommendation from a high school principal, counselor and also from a spiritual advisor or youth leader of his/her church, synagogue, mosque or other faith association, or someone he or she thinks of as an adult mentor.

It is advisable for the student to give as much information as he/she can about his/her academic achievements, honors received, club participation, and any volunteerism done during the past four years in or out of high school. Copies of the student's transcript and ACT scores also need to be included with the application. The more information we have about the student helps us make a better judgment when choosing the recipient for the scholarship. This additional information can be on separate sheets of paper and sent in with the application.
